

CCHGS OFFERING

A FALL PROGRAM SERIES

CCHGS is once again offering an array of fall programs. All are free and open to the general public.

GENEALOGY FAIR

Saturday October 17, 2009 10 am –2 pm (Drop in anytime).

McBride Memorial Library, 500 Market Street, Berwick PA

Genealogy is America's fastest-growing pastime. Demonstrations and information from local historical groups and service providers – research, photo and document preservation, oral history, on-line help.

Sponsors: CCH&GS, and Berwick Historical Society

“100 YEARS OF FOOT-RACING IN BERWICK”

Date: October 20, 7 pm

Presenter: Mark Will-Weber

Location: First Methodist Church, 200 Market Street, Berwick.

The author of a new history, “The Run for the Diamonds,” shows highlights of a century of this popular annual event in Berwick.

“COLUMBIA COUNTY GOES CAR CRAZY”

Date: October 27, 7 pm

Presenter: Mark Fritz

Location: First Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall, 345 Market Street, Bloomsburg.

In 1900 industrialist James M. Staver brought to the county its first horseless carriage, and soon the new automobiles were the rage of the county. This illustrated talk will show the marked impact of this new mode of transportation.

“LIFE IN A JAR”: A DRAMATIC PRESENTATION

Date: November 6, 7 pm

Location: Bloomsburg Senior High School, Railroad & 12th Sts.

This drama, written and acted by Kansas young people, tells the extraordinary story of Irena Sendler, who saved 2500 children from destruction in WW II. Her story was recently featured in a Hallmark TV presentation.