

DO YOU REMEMBER FERNVILLE?

By Pat Parker

You can now order a delightfully personalized history book entitled, Do You Remember Fernville? It is about a small village across Fishing Creek from Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, written by one of its residents, Pat Parker, for the Columbia County Historical and Genealogical Society. Mark Fritz, also a resident of Fernville, was the photograph editor. Throughout the book there are numerous pictures and names of residents back to the year 1788. She has also incorporated information that will be of interest to genealogists.

The book has 87 pages, 3 maps and 74 photos, bibliography, and an appendix listing names of Fernville residents in the years of 1898, 1901, 1972, and 1999.
