

FERNVILLE – 2007: STILL HANGIN' IN!
By Pat Parker

In this supplement to DO YOU REMEMBER FERNVILLE? longtime resident Pat Parker describes the colorful people of a unique neighborhood beside Fishing Creek. Over 250 past and present Fernville residents are mentioned by name.

8.5"x11", spiral bound, 48 pages, map, 45 photos, index

More info...

Focusing on the flood of 2006, from dramatic rescues to the still-ongoing recovery effort, Fernville – 2007 depicts the life of a close-knit neighborhood as its varied residents struggle to cope yet again with floodwaters, mud, and bureaucrats. Detailing the stories of each household, the author presents vivid pictures of a modern community which still has many features of traditional rural America.

For the earlier history of Fernville, scroll down to Do You Remember Fernville? on the Publications tab.

To order, print this page and fill out the coupon below. This book will make a great holiday gift!

ORDER FORM — FERNVILLE – 2007

	No. COPIES	PRICE	TAX (PA Residents only)	MAILING	TOTAL
CCH&GS MEMBERS:	_____	$6.00 ea.	$0.36	$3.00	_____
NONMEMBERS	_____	$6.60 ea.	$0.40	$3.00	_____

NAME _____ TEL _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

Make check for full amount to: Col. Co. Hist. & Gen. Soc.

Mail to: Col. Co. Hist. & Gen. Soc.
P.O. Box 360
Bloomsburg PA 17815